

Marina Jagbandhansingh, GPC. D, Director

Marina received her Governance Professionals of Canada designation in 2019 and is passionate about corporate governance. She spent several years working as a Governance Specialist in healthcare working for a primary care network. Prior to that she held various progressive roles working for the provincial power grid in Alberta. She also spent several years working as a securities paralegal for a national law firm.

Marina believes strongly in volunteering.

In addition to volunteering with Rowan House Society, she also volunteers as an experienced dog walker with the Calgary Humane Society.

“What gives you hope?”

Volunteers! They remind me that there are good people in the world.
